- 4 skinless and boneless chicken breasts, cut in half

- 1 ½ cups multigrain or whole wheat panko bread crumbs

Lamb Kabobs

WITH CUCUMBER RAITA

Makes 4-6 servings

For the quinoa

- 1 cup quinoa, rinsed
- Salt
- 1 tablespoon fresh lemon juice
- 1 tablespoon extra-virgin olive oil
- 2 tablespoons chopped flat-leaf parsley

For the raita

- 12 ounces nonfat Greek yogurt
- ⅓ cup diced, peeled, and seeded cucumber
- 3 tablespoons chopped fresh mint leaves
- 1 ½ tablespoons fresh lemon juice
- 1 large garlic clove, minced
- Salt

For the lamb

- 1 lb boneless leg of lamb, trimmed and cut into 1-inch pieces
- 1 tablespoon curry powder
- 2 tablespoons extra-virgin olive oil
- Salt
- 16 grape or cherry tomatoes
- 1 yellow bell pepper, seeded and cut into 1-inch pieces
- 8 10-inch bamboo skewers, soaked in water

1. To prepare the quinoa: Place the quinoa in a medium saucepan. Cover with 2 cups cold water and add a pinch of salt. Cover the pan and bring to a boil. As soon as it begins to boil, reduce the heat to a simmer and set the lid slightly ajar to prevent boiling over. Simmer the quinoa for 15 to 20 minutes or until the liquid has been fully absorbed. You should see a little white ring release from the quinoa germ. Remove from heat, fluff with a fork, and stir in the lemon juice, olive oil, and parsley.

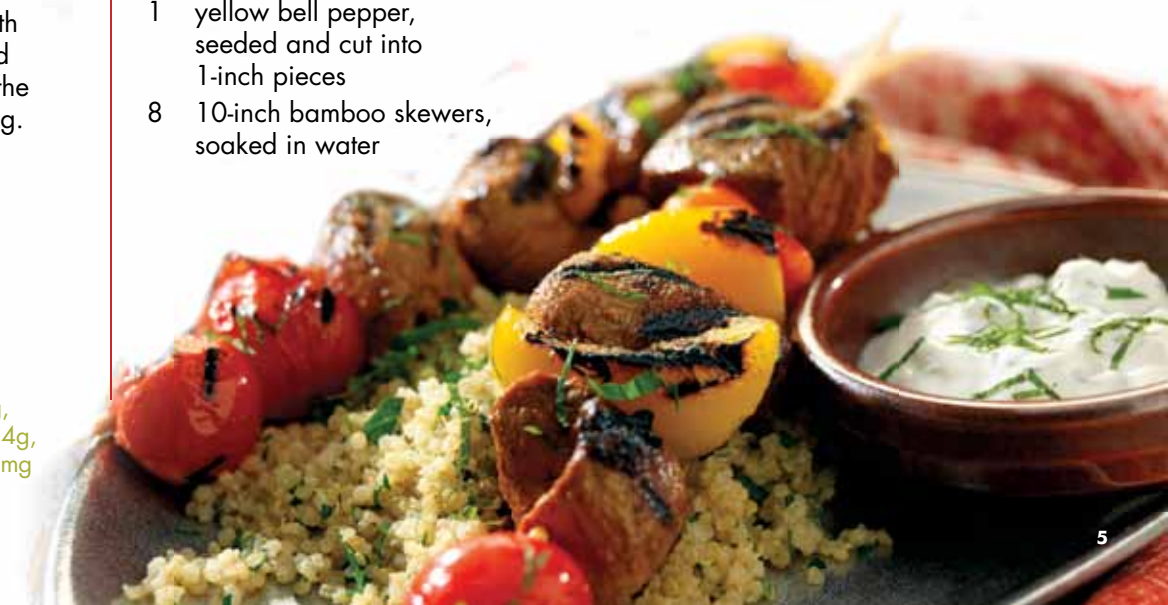

2. To prepare the raita: In a small mixing bowl, combine the yogurt, cucumber, mint, lemon juice, and garlic. Mix with a wooden spoon until fully incorporated. Season with salt. Cover and refrigerate until ready to use.

3. To prepare the lamb: Preheat a grill to moderate heat. In a medium mixing bowl, combine the lamb, curry powder, and 1 tablespoon of the olive oil. Season with salt. In a separate mixing bowl, combine the tomatoes and bell pepper. Toss with the remaining 1 tablespoon extra-virgin olive oil and season with salt. Thread the lamb, bell pepper, and tomatoes alternately onto the skewers. Place the prepared kabobs on the grill and cook for 5 minutes on each side or until cooked.

4. Spoon some quinoa on each plate, top with two lamb kabobs, and spoon some raita over the lamb. Sprinkle with additional chopped mint, if desired.

Creamy Scrambled Eggs in Crispy Potato Skins

Makes 4 Servings

- 2 (12-ounce) baking potatoes, washed
- 4 large eggs, beaten
- 4 large egg whites, beaten
- 3 tablespoons, plus 4 teaspoons light sour cream
- 1/8 teaspoon each salt and black pepper
- 2 tablespoons chopped green onions
- 1/4 cup shredded reduced fat cheddar cheese
- 4 teaspoons real bacon bits
- 4 teaspoons finely chopped green onion tops

1. To prepare the potato skins, pierce potatoes with a fork and place in the microwave. Cook on high for 10 minutes. While potatoes are cooking, preheat oven to 425° F. Remove potatoes from microwave and cut lengthwise. Scoop out the potato pulp, leaving 1/4 inch of potato in the skin. Place skins onto a baking sheet and lightly spray with cooking oil. Bake for 10 to 12 minutes or until skin is crispy. (Discard potato pulp or reserve for another use.)

2. While potato skins are baking, whisk together the eggs, egg whites, and 3 tablespoons of sour cream. Spray a medium-size skillet with non-stick cooking spray and place over medium low heat. Add eggs to pan and cook, stirring gently, for 2 to 3 minutes or until curds start to form. Add green onion and continue to cook for additional minute or two or until eggs are just set (eggs should be creamy, not dry).

3. Pile eggs into crispy potato skins. Top each with 1 tablespoon of cheddar cheese, 1 teaspoon light sour cream, 1 teaspoon of real bacon bits, and additional finely chopped green onion for garnish. Serve hot.

Peas with Mint and Soft Poached Eggs

Serves 4

- 2 cups shelled fresh green peas
- ¼ cup distilled white vinegar
- 1 tablespoon fine sea salt
- 1 tablespoon lemon juice plus grated zest and juice of 1 lemon
- 8 organic cage-free eggs
- 3 tablespoons olive oil
- 1 celery rib, thinly sliced crosswise on the diagonal
- 1 small yellow onion, finely diced
- 2 garlic cloves, smashed and finely chopped
- ½ cup hand-torn fresh mint leaves
- 2 heirloom tomatoes or medium vine-ripened tomatoes, coarsely chopped

Using a slotted spoon, transfer the cooked eggs to a shallow plate.

3. In a large skillet, heat the oil over medium-high heat. Add the celery, onion, and garlic and cook until translucent, 2 to 3 minutes. Add the mint, tomatoes, and blanched peas. Season to taste with salt and pepper and sprinkle with the lemon zest and juice. Toss well to combine.

- Salt and freshly ground black pepper

1. To make the vinaigrette: In a medium skillet, heat 2 tablespoons of the garlic oil over medium-high heat. Add the carrots, ginger, and garlic and cook until the carrots are fork-tender, 2 to 3 minutes. Remove from the heat and set aside.

2. In a food processor or blender, combine the onion, vinegar, agave nectar, sambal, soy sauce, mustard, salt, and pepper. Blend the mixture until smooth, gradually adding the remaining ¾ cup plus 2 tablespoons garlic oil in a slow stream. Transfer the mixture to a small bowl and fold in the carrot-ginger mixture. If the vinaigrette is too thick for your liking, stir in 1 teaspoon of cold water. Set aside.

3. To cook the steaks: In a large bowl, whisk together the garlic oil, rosemary, chopped garlic, shallot, and vinegar. Add the steaks, turning to coat well with the marinade, then set the bowl aside to rest at room temperature for 10 minutes.

4. Preheat an outdoor grill or a stovetop grill pan to medium-high heat. Grill the steaks without turning for 2 minutes. Rotate them 45 degrees and cook another 2 minutes. Flip them over and repeat. The steaks cook a total of 4 minutes per side for medium-rare.

5. Transfer the cooked steaks to a cutting board and season to taste with salt and pepper. Let the steaks rest for 3 to 4 minutes before thinly slicing them against the grain. Serve the sliced steak topped with a couple tablespoons of the vinaigrette.

Soft Pretzels

To achieve their typical dense, chewy texture, pretzels are cooked in boiling water before baking.

Yield: 12 pretzels (1 each)

- | | |
|--|--|
| 1 package active dry yeast | 2 quarts water |
| ½ cup warm water (110-115 degrees) | 1 tablespoon baking soda |
| 1 tablespoon sugar | 1 egg, lightly beaten |
| 1 cup fat-free milk, heated to simmering, cooled | 1 tablespoon cold water |
| 2-4 cups all-purpose flour, divided | Toppings: poppy seeds, sesame seeds, coarse salt, herbs, dried onion flakes, etc. |
| 1 teaspoon salt | |

- Mix yeast, warm water, and sugar in large bowl; let stand 5 minutes. Add milk, 2 cups flour, and salt, beating until smooth. Mix in enough remaining 2 cups flour to make smooth dough. Knead dough on floured surface until smooth and elastic, about 5 minutes. Place in greased bowl; let rise, covered, in warm place until double in size, 45 to 60 minutes. Punch dough down.
- Roll dough on floured surface to rectangle 16 x 12 inches. Cut dough lengthwise into 12 strips, 1 inch wide. Roll one strip dough with palms of hands into "rope." 18 to inches long. Form loop, holding ends of "rope" and twisting 2 times. Bring ends of "rope" down and fasten at opposite sides of loop to form pretzel shape. Repeat with remaining dough, transferring pretzels to floured surface. Let pretzels stand, lightly covered, 30 minutes (they may not double in size).
- Heat 2 quarts water to boiling in large saucepan; stir in baking soda. Transfer pretzels, a few at a time, into boiling water; boil until dough feels firm, about 1 minute. Remove pretzels from boiling water with slotted spoon, draining well. Place on generously greased foil-lined cookie sheets. Brush pretzels with combined egg and cold water; sprinkle with desired toppings. Bake at 400 degrees until golden, 18 to 20 minutes. Cool on wire racks.
